

ADMIRAL 1983

Even though Cradock High School has been an established High School in the city of Portsmouth for many years, there is always room for changes and challenges. Each year, new and exciting activities give Cradock a special place in the community. The Cradock High School Yearbook staff feels that it is this atmosphere of excitement and enthusiasm that keeps us "MOVIN' ON UP"

THE 1982-83 ADMIRAL IS

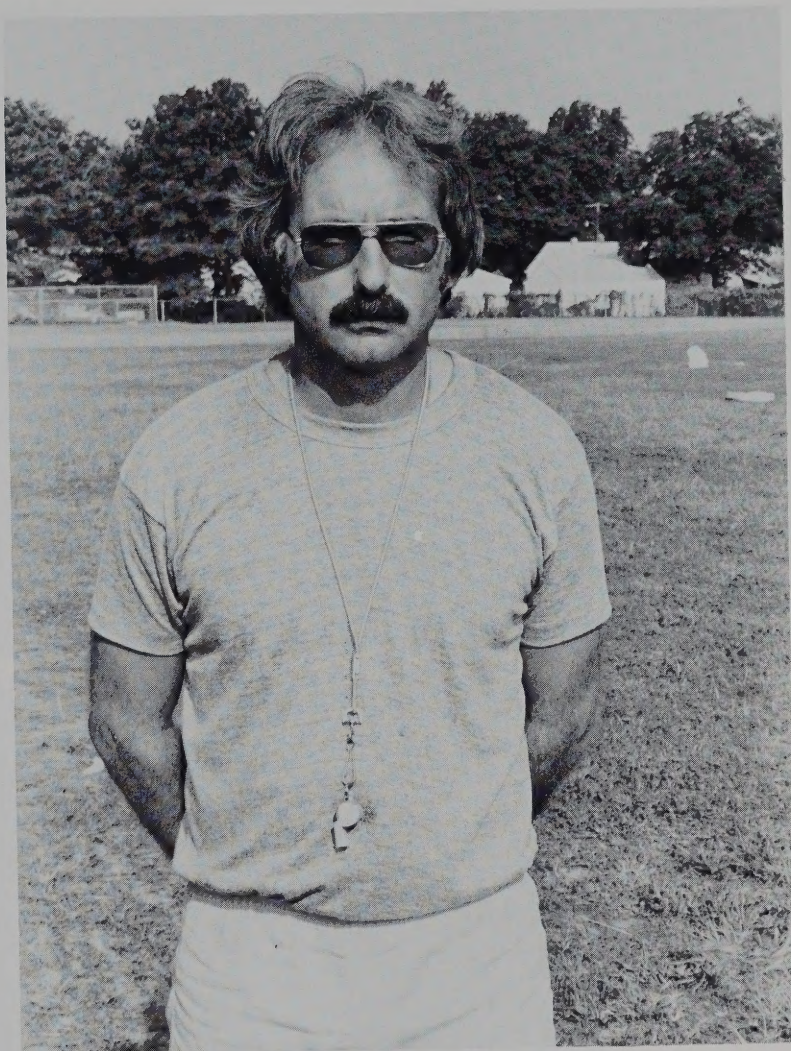

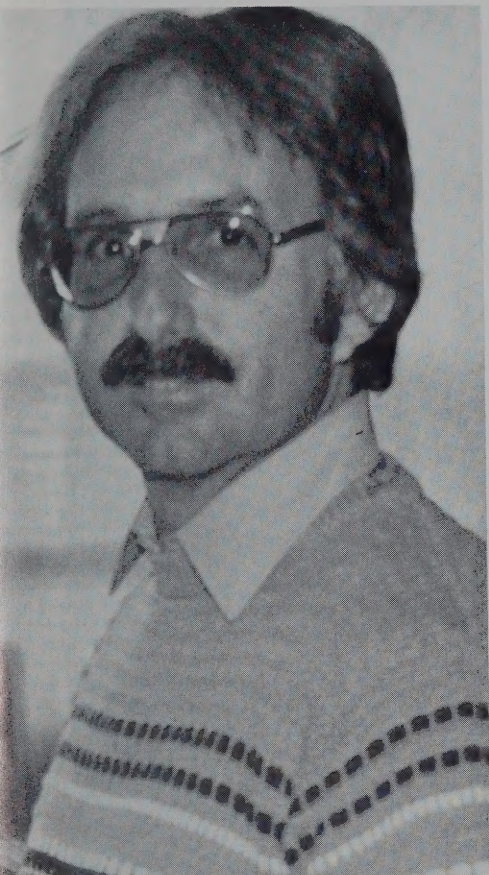

Mr. Bisese at home in the classroom

Guarding the door at an assembly

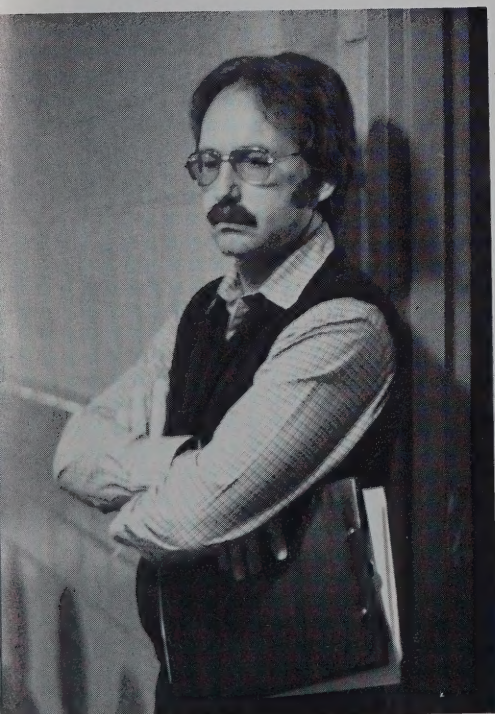

This year's yearbook staff proudly dedicates this year's ADMIRAL to Mr. Butch Bisese. Mr. Bisese has been teaching for twelve years. During this time he has taught math and coached football and basketball. Because of his personality, sense of humor, and enthusiasm in the classroom, he has served as an outstanding example for his students. Cradock is fortunate to have such a fine teacher on its staff.

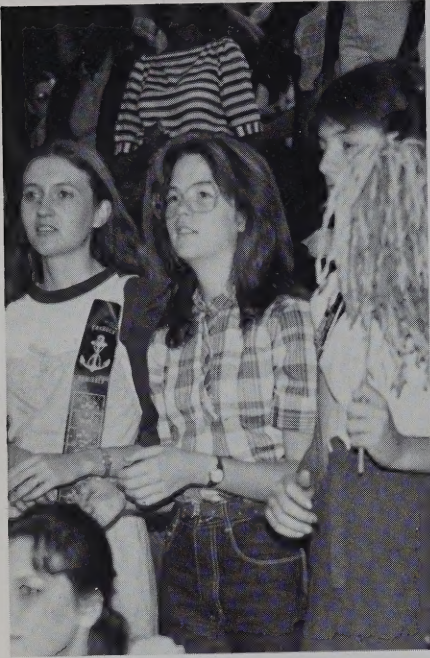

DEDICATED TO MR. BUTCH BISESE

Coaching football

MOVIN' ON UP IN SPIRIT

Mrs. Fletcher and her homeroom students wait with anticipation for the pep rally to begin.

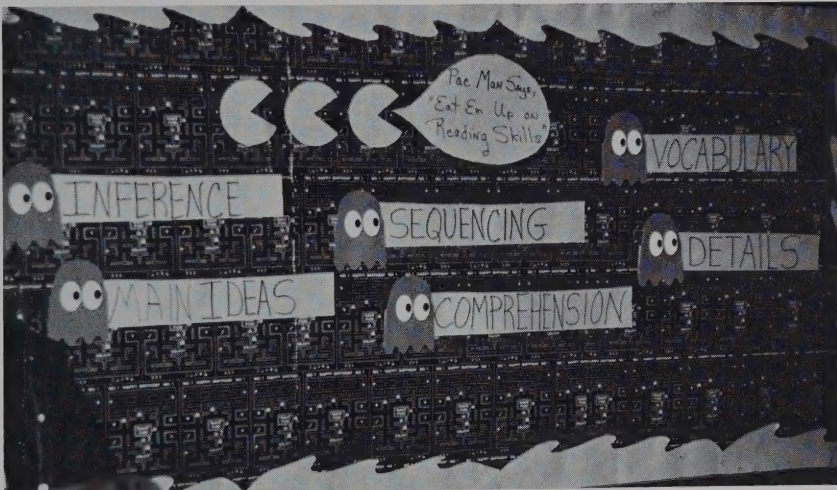

Sophomores joke around at pep rally or are they claiming to be number two!!!

Varsity cheerleaders keep up the spirit at the homecoming pep rally

IN WORK

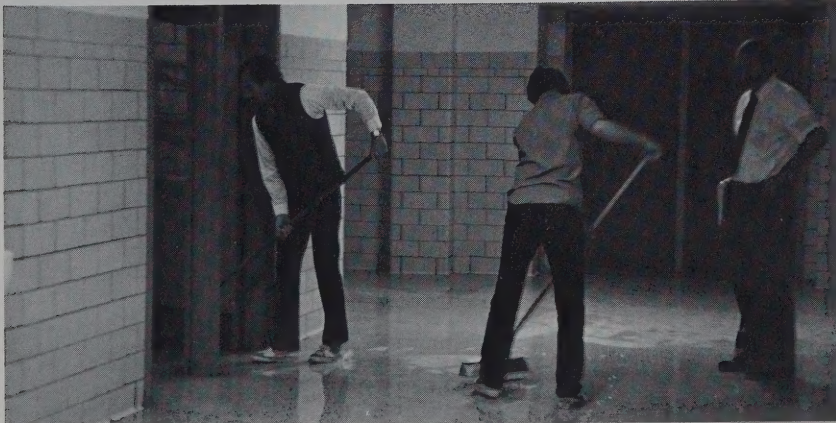

David King, Timothy Lovejoy, Daleine Redford and Darin Bracy represented Cradock at the Tidewater Challenge.

Pac Man comes to Cradock to teach Reading Skills

When a leak in the pipes caused a flood in the halls, teachers and students pitched in to clear the way.

IN PLAY

Varsity Cheerleaders and football players pose for football program pictures.

Bill Flax, Donna Hardy, Smithy Hill, Ernest Trusty, Michael Scruggs and Penny Jackson think that group pictures are best.

Seniors celebrate spirit week by having a "punk rock" day

IN ACTION

Cradock's band is always "movin on up" at football games and pep rallies

Has Steve Detweiler been in Ms. Wright's class too long?

William Perry and Sonny Williams "get down" on the drums at the pep rally

MATHEMATICS DEPARTMENT

Mr. Willie Perry; Math

Mr. Jerry Shackelford; Math, Dept. Head.

Mr. Butch Bisese; Math.

MATH, DIFFICULT FOR SOME, CHALLENGING FOR ALL.

Mrs. Arlene Downing: Math

Mrs. Rosa Davis: Math

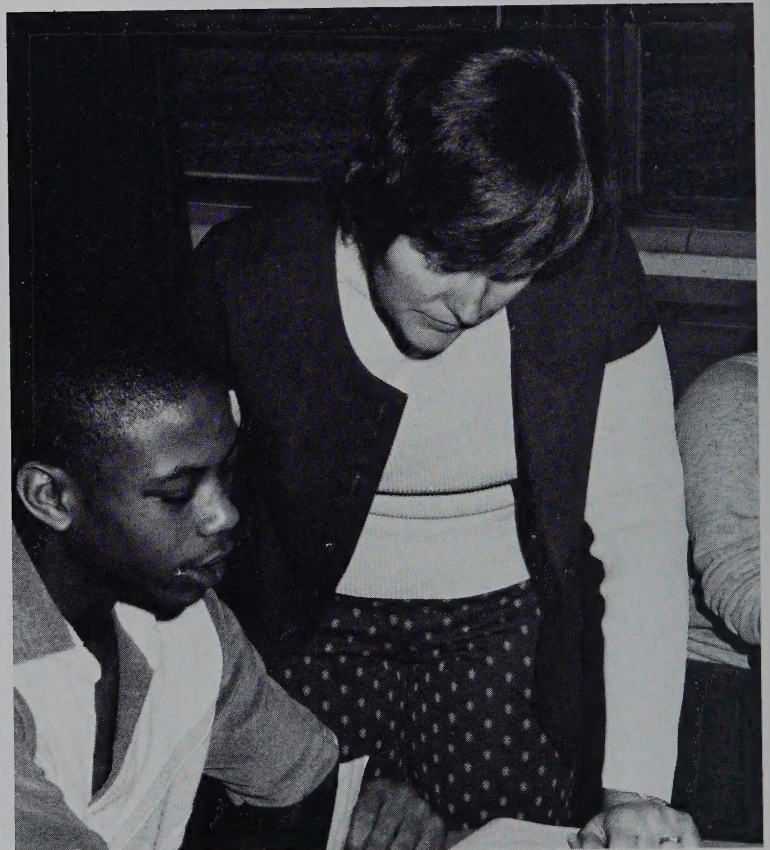

Attitudes towards math change very little over the years. Students still frown over geometry, cry over algebra, and sometimes lose patience over analysis. The problems increase as the work advances. Equations to solve, postulates to learn, theories to prove . . . all create a maze that calls for skilled teachers and intelligent learners.

MATH BOGGLES YOUR MIND!

Miss Patty Rothenburger: Math

$$2 + 2 = ?$$

Mrs. Fran Jones: Math

SCIENCE DEPARTMENT

Science creates a vast awakening to new and fascinating curiosity in students for learning, whether in calculating weights in chemistry, solving the mysteries of centrifugal force in physics, or discovering a whole new world of life in biology.

Mrs. Joanne Vance: Biology

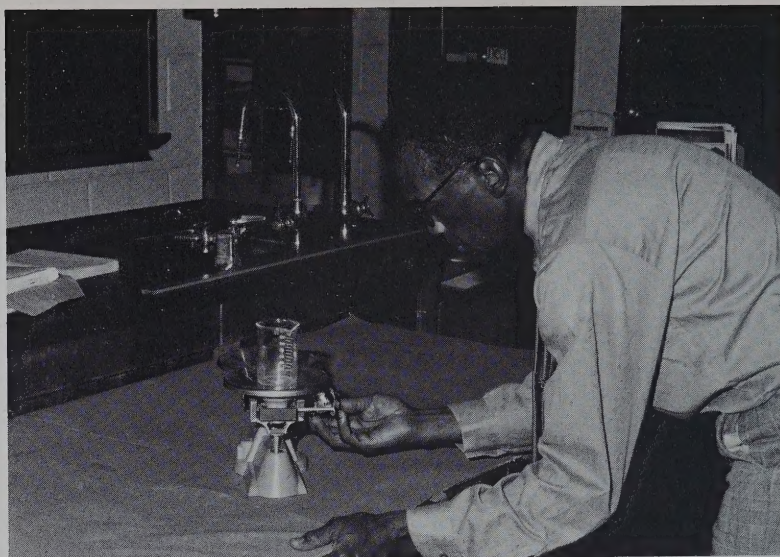

Laverne Campbell: Biology

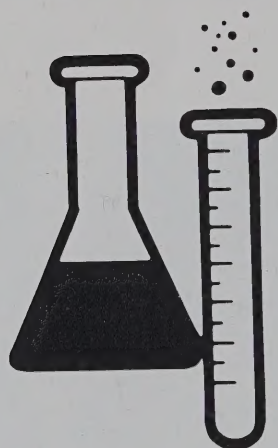

Miss Dorri Gradel: Earth Science

DANGER: SCIENTISTS AT WORK!

Mr. Sidney Edwards: Physical Science, Department Head

Mrs. Charlotte Warren: Physical Science, Physics

Cecelia Fletcher: Chemistry, Physical Science, Pre-Algebra

SOCIAL STUDIES DEPARTMENT

Mrs. Lucille Cradle: 8th Grade History

Ms. Jean Todd: U.S. History and Sociology

During high school, a student must venture through the many doors of social studies. The student will discover the many ideals of man that have created such a great heritage as ours. Through the social studies program, the student obtains many things of great value, which enable him to become a good citizen of our ever changing world.

HISTORY COMES ALIVE IN CLASS.

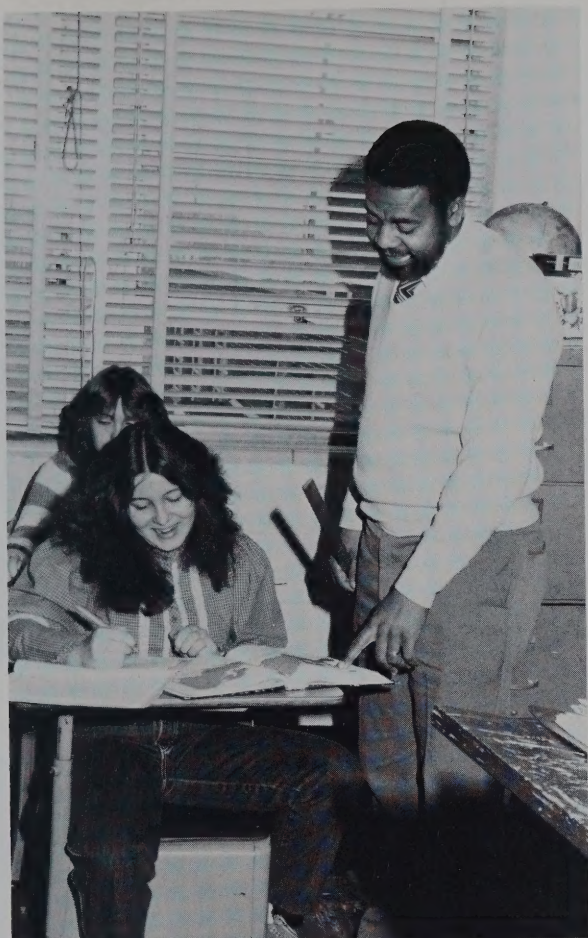

Mr. Joe Pociask: U.S. History, World History, Department Head

Miss CarolAnn Murray: 8th Grade History

Mr. Scott Johnson: World Geography, U.S. History

Mr. Larry Manning: World Geography

Mrs. Claudia Trueblood: Government and 8th Grade History

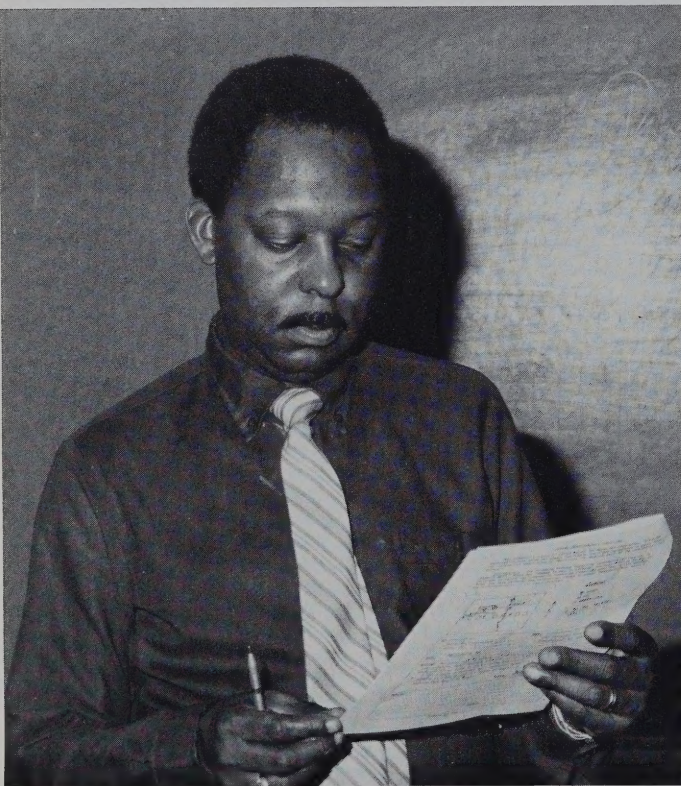

Mr. David Willett: U.S. Government

IN ONE
ERA,

OTHER!

BUSINESS DEPARTMENT

The Business Department prepares students as clerks, secretaries, and bookkeepers. Block classes are available so a student will be able to study all the skills related to business in one class. Also new to Cradock is Data Processing. Computers were added so we can keep up with the ever changing world of business.

Mr. Alonzo Fane: Business Exploration, Business Law and Typing

Mrs. Naomi Bolden: Clerk Typing I, Department Head

Pauline Stamper: Record Keeping, Typing and General Business

Mrs. Jessie Linyear: Typing, Accounting and Data Processing

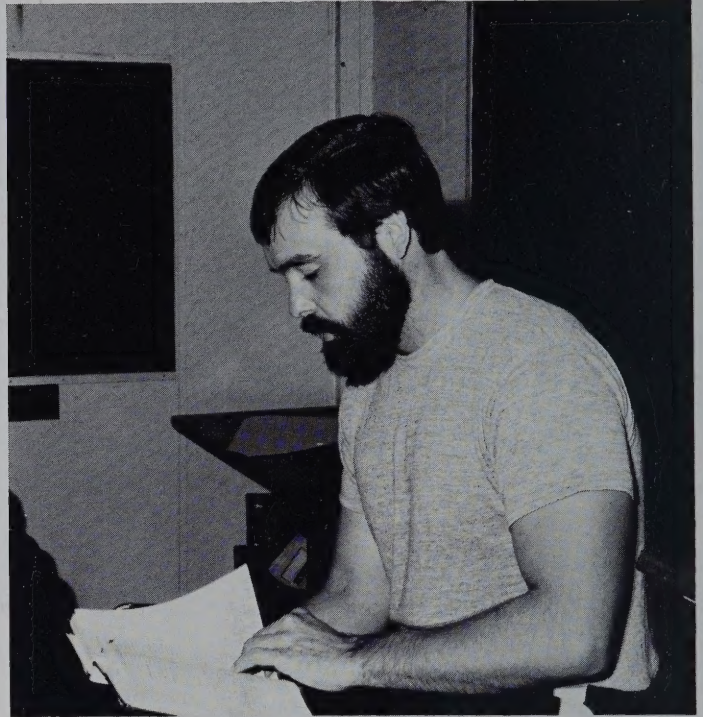

Mrs. Faye Mobley: Steno I and II, COE Coordinator

NEW AT CRADOCK — DATA PROCESSING!

HEALTH AND PHYSICAL EDUCATION

Health Education is taught as a part of the total Physical Education program. Instruction is conducted on an alternating weekly basis. Health education is designed to develop an awareness of sound physical, mental and emotional health. Physical Education is designed to give experience in physical activity coordinating mind and body.

Mr. Bob Parker: Physical Education

Mrs. Pat Fisher: Physical Education

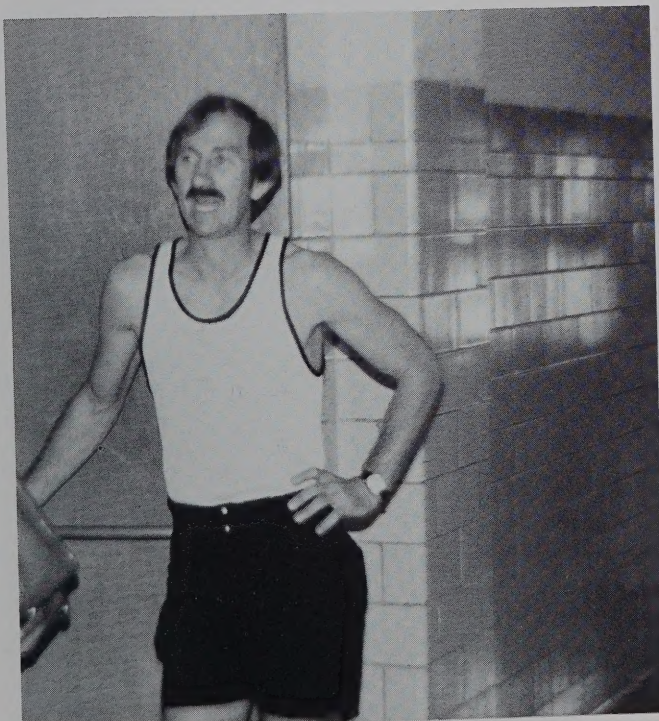

Mrs. Lottie Short: Physical Education

MUSIC TO OUR EARS!

The distant sound of muffled drums and melodic singing echoes from an almost forgotten section of our halls. The Music Department is at work again. Whether the band is practicing or our chorus is singing Christmas Carols, we are reminded of the part that music plays in our daily lives,

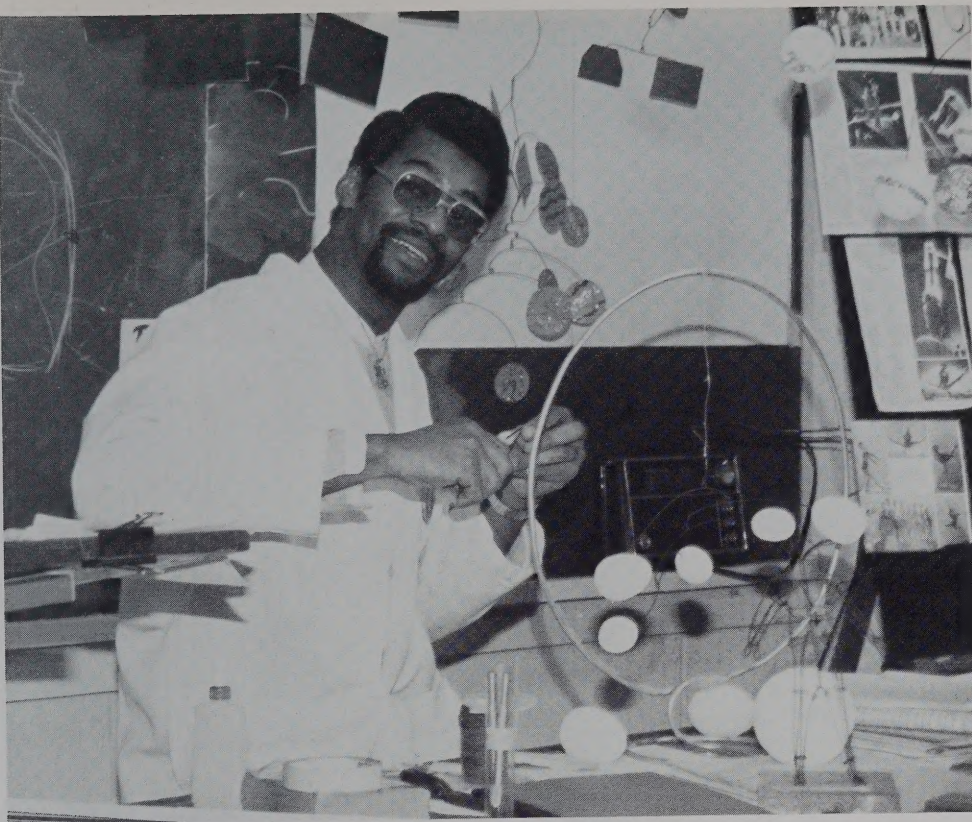

CHORUS BAND

Miss Kathleen Murphy: Music and Chorus

Mr. Larry Lemasters: Band Director

Mr. Donald Wilson: Art

ART DEPT.

Mrs. Carole Platt: Art, Department Head

Give an art student paints, brushes, and a mass of clay and he loses himself in a work of his own. What he sees and feels he can express in just about any way; from things way out to things more recognizable. As long as a student relies on his own imagination, he is free "to do his thing" The Choice is his, for self-expression in the basis of all art.

HOME ECONOMICS

The home Economics Department teaches Sewing, Cooking, Family Living and Child Care. It provides refreshments for various activities. Any time you walk through the halls, you can smell delicious food coming from the Home Ec Rooms.

Mrs. Rachel Adams: Home Economics

Mrs. Kathleen Hammer: Home Economics

Mr. Howard Beale: Industrial Arts, Metal Shop

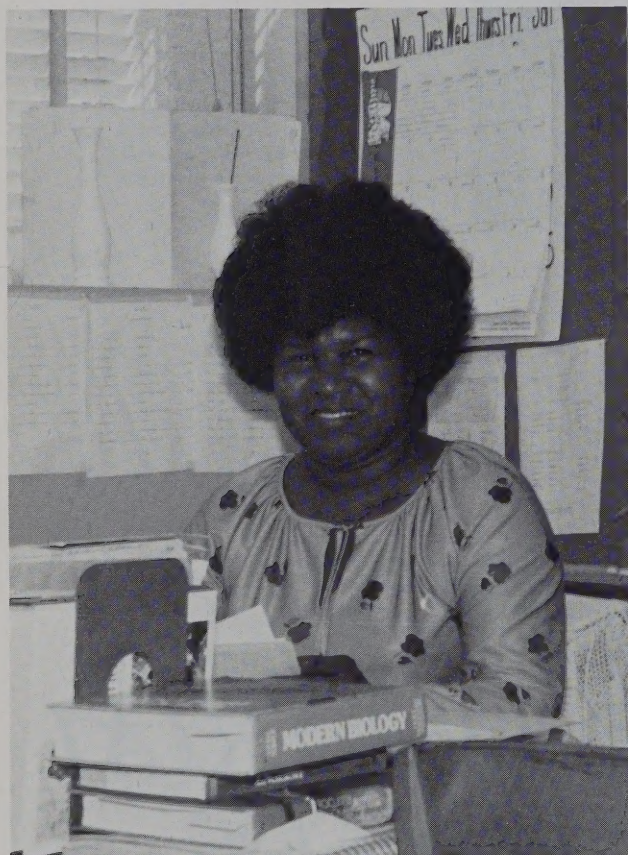

Mr. Hollis Ergenbright: Industrial Arts, Wood Shop

INDUSTRIAL ARTS

The Industrial Arts program answers industry's cry for help and prepares students for a better future by helping them to become intelligent consumers. In Metal Shop and Wood Shop, the students are taught various tools and designs.

DISTRIBUTIVE EDUCATION

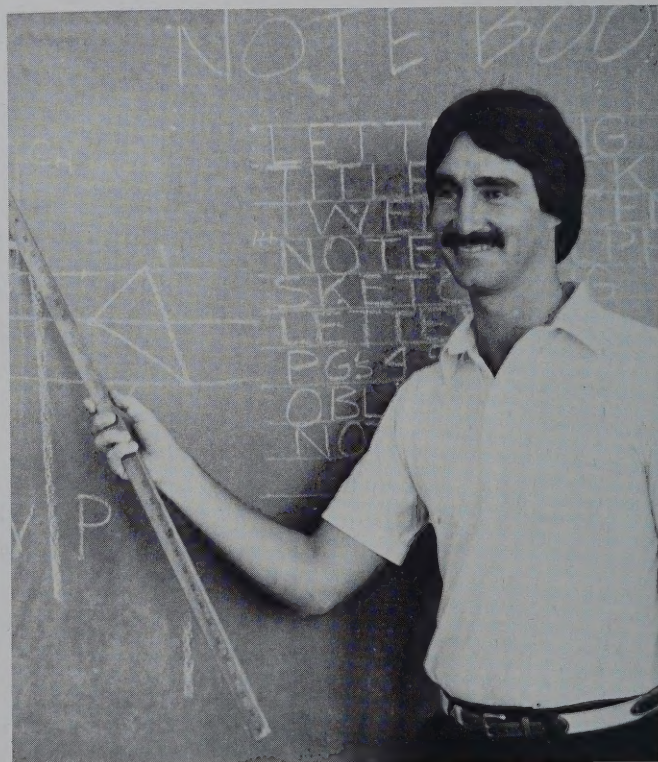

SPECIAL EDUCATION

Mrs. Annie Redd; Special Education

Mr. Nick Ashby; Distributive Education

Producing a yearbook is a tremendous job. It is not to be taken lightly. There are many demands and deadlines to meet. However, the finished product is always worth the time and effort.

THE STUDENT COOPERATIVE ASSOCIATION

The SCA is a vital part of Cradock High School's activities. It sponsors such activities as Homecoming, Thanksgiving Food Drive, Children's Christmas Party, Red Cross Blood Drive, and the Miss Cradock Pageant. A great deal of work goes into planning these activities. It is important that each member of the SCA be dedicated to their job and be willing to serve efficiently to make each year at Cradock a successful one.

Homecoming 1982 was a splendid display of Cradock's school spirit. Spirit was building throughout the week with the participation in Spirit Week. The clubs joined in the spirit by participating in the parade. The floats were to go along with the theme, "That's Entertainment." The Art Club won "Most Original". The Industrial Arts Club won "Best Looking". The Kappa Club won "Carried Out the Theme Best". The anticipation grew as everyone waited for the announcement of king and queen. By half-time, the excitement and spirit were at their peak. The announcement was made. The 1982 Homecoming King and Queen — Reggie Griffin and Sonya Perdue. Congratulations to both of them and to all the Homecoming Representatives.
